Haslet Seeking to Fill City Secretary Position after Retirement Announced

The City of Haslet has begun to search for a new city secretary immediately following the retirement announcement from Dianna Buchanan, City Secretary and Director of Administrative Services. She has been employed by the City of Haslet since 2012 and will retire from public service after having served councils and citizens of area local governments for over 22 years. Mrs. Buchanan said, "It has truly been an honor to support elected officials and citizens over the years. I have been blessed beyond measure during my entire career to have worked for and with wonderful people and organizations. I have seen many of the Council's plans and goals for Haslet come to fruition during my tenure and I feel honored to have contributed even if by a small part."

Haslet City Council will advertise the job opening in the near future and begin the process to screen, interview, and select a new city secretary. Information regarding the job opening and application process will be posted on the city's website at www.Haslet.org.
